

Cardinal Mooney High School CMHS

We will continue to grow from our challenges

Dear Cardinal Mooney Family:

"The world is a classroom," it has been said, and "life is the teacher." How dramatically we have learned that lesson in recent weeks as our traditional methods of instruction have been transformed. We are amazed and inspired by the inventiveness of our faculty and the willingness of our students to adapt.

We pray that the joy of Easter fills your heart and that you were able to relax during our break. While we await the Governor's next announcement about schools, we ask parents to help students transition back to logging on each day to Google Classroom and engage with the plan that each teacher prepares. Students, traditional grades are still being assigned, so it is important that you complete all work. Email your teachers and participate in online sessions or office hours to get answers to your questions.

While we all look forward to the day when we can once again gather in groups of community that we had before.

Next month, our new school president, Tom Maj, will arrive to lead our community at a time of profound change. This is yet another transition that promises to help position Cardinal Mooney High School for all the challenges and opportunities the future holds.

With Mr. Maj's arrival, the search for a new school principal will intensify, and those of us currently serving in interim positions will give way to long-term leadership. We do so having learned from all of you, and with a sense of gratitude for the blessings we have enjoyed.

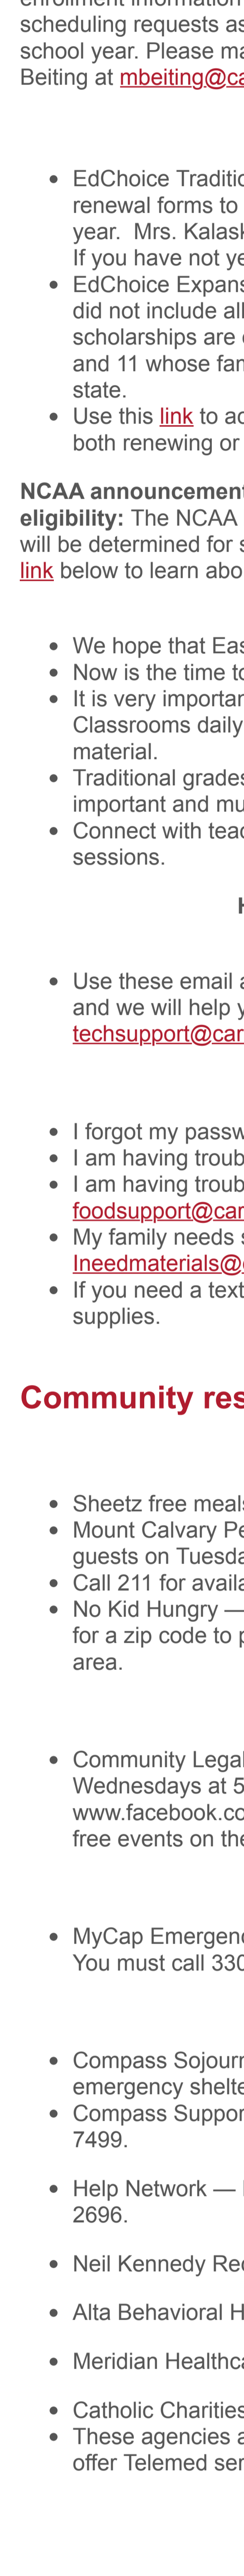

Thank you for the community you are. Distance has not changed our sense of connectiveness to the Mooney Family, and distance will not change that sense in the days to come.

God bless you.

Sincerely,

Richard Osborne

PRAYER TO THE VIRGIN MARY FOR THE PROTECTION FROM CORONAVIRUS

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Prayer by Pope Francis dosp.org

Academic update

Course selection requests: Thanks to all who have mailed back the enrollment information for 2020-2021. We will be reviewing the scheduling requests as we prepare to build the schedule for next school year. Please mail your forms to the school or email them to Dr. Beiting at mbeiting@cardinalmooney.com

EdChoice Scholarships

- EdChoice Traditional: Thanks to all who have submitted the renewal forms to apply for the EdChoice Scholarship for next year. Mrs. Kalasky has been diligently entering all the requests. If you have not yet renewed, please do so now!
- EdChoice Expansion: While the traditional EdChoice scholarship did not include all the new districts listed in the fall, these scholarships are open to students currently in grades 8, 9, 10, and 11 whose families meet the income guidelines set by the state.
- Use this link to access information and the application form for both renewing or signing up for the first time.

NCAA announcements for graduating seniors about eligibility: The NCAA has posted important information how eligibility will be determined for students graduating this year. Please go to the link below to learn about it.

Keep up with classes!

- We hope that Easter break provided a chance to relax.
- Now is the time to get back on track with your schoolwork.
- It is very important that all students log in to each of their Google Classrooms daily and engage with their teachers to learn the material.
- Traditional grades are being recorded, so all assignments are important and must be completed.
- Connect with teachers through email, office hours and class sessions.

Thoughts on Tony Roncone

As the days pass, and emotions settle, memories rise to the surface. During this time, members of Mooney Family have gathered and shared their experience working with Anthony Roncone. We appreciate all those who have given us more of a perspective on the man who means so much to the history of our school, and to the community.

"I met Tony more than 60 years ago as a student and then as a colleague and ultimately as a friend and mentor to my children. He had compassion for all and a special concern for his students. Tony was a multi-talented 'Renaissance' man. He loved his family and it is his lasting memorial."
— Paul Gregory, former Alumni Director

"What I remember about Tony is how he was nice to everyone. I enjoyed when we had a common prep period and we would sit in the teachers' lounge off of the cafeteria and the cafeteria ladies would always bring out cookies when he was there. He proudly told me was making a special bed for one of his grandchildren. He said he made one for each grandchild, with a theme chosen personally to fit that child. When he was doing his work in progress, I was astounded at the artistic, colorful and detailed work he was showing on the bed and was touched by the love and devotion that he was putting into his work. I also felt that those grandchildren were so lucky to have a wonderful grandfather like Tony. Likewise, all of us at Mooney were lucky to have such a true and talented friend and colleague like Tony. May he rest in peace."
— Mary Lou Eicher, former Religion teacher

"When I started teaching in 1969 at age twenty-two, Cardinal Mooney had a faculty of seventy. I was definitely the youngest of only twelve lay women. From the beginning, so many of the lay men helped me to become a better teacher, whether in the classroom or in study hall. One of those who befriended me early on was Tony Roncone. I always felt as if I could approach Tony for information and advice. From the start, I saw that he had the respect of all the students he taught. He worked tirelessly to find ways to reach every student, especially those who seemed to not be noticed in a large high school. He was so talented, teaching Mechanical Drawing, Woodshop, Electronics, and Photography. This went beyond his classes into such ventures as photography and the Auto and Rifle Clubs. He just seemed to know what each one needed and daily he provided that with a warm smile, a delightful sense of humor (My favorite memory of Tony is a lunchroom "magic" trick he played on a fellow teacher and his tie.), words of encouragement, and even gentle, but firm discipline. More than that, he was a strong role model of what a man, husband, father, teacher, and friend should be."
— Eileen Bacha, former English teacher

"Mr. Roncone, the Renaissance Man, always had a twinkle in his eye. He gave every student a nickname and they loved him and most importantly they learned from him. They learned respect and responsibility and a little bit of rock and roll! I respected him and learned from him and he always made me smile. He shared his magic hallway and Room 131 with me. (I came when block scheduling began in '99-00). I taught Intro to Art upstairs and Photo One downstairs. He would pop in to see how I was doing — always in his white working coat, full of sawdust from the wood working class. SO often, he would give us all a life and finance lesson — it was fun. We were also the first to see and learn about the Twin Towers on 9/11."
— Maureen Kandray, current Art teacher
